First Move Towards Third Party Made Today in St. Paul, Minn., by Committee Representing Its Interests—Twenty States May Participate In Convention.

(By The Associated Press.)
ST. PAUL, Minn., March 25.—Formal call for a national convention of the Farmer-Labor party to be held here June 17th was issued today by a committee representing the various interests of the party.

Delegates from twelve to twenty States are expected to attend the convention at which, it was said, they may be expected to select third party candidates for president and vice-president.

THREE ARE HELD FOR THE MURDER OF DR. WILKINS

Many Points Figure in Reason for Arrest of Trio for Woman's Death

(By The Associated Press.)
KANSAS CITY, Mo., March 25.—B. F. Taylor, Charles Wilkins and John Davis, negro, are in jail today charged with first degree murder in connection with the slaying here of Dr. Z. C. Wilkins, osteopath, following a coroner's hearing yesterday.

Taylor's failure to make a certain explanation at the hearing and discrepancies in the negro's statement concerning his movements on the night the murder is believed to have been committed prompted James Anderson, assistant prosecutor to recommend the charges be filed against the men, he said.

Testimony of friends of Dr. Wilkins, who claim to have been present at the slaying, coupled with the fact he caused her doctor, her "only protection" to be killed, led to the filing of the charge against Charles Wilkins.

Taylor was said to be a frequent visitor at the Wilkins home. Davis was employed by Dr. Wilkins as a janitor.

Estimates Made On Improvements At City's Jail

Estimates of the costs entailed in making repairs to the city jail as recently recommended by the recent grand jury report are being prepared by the city engineer who expects to have them in presentable form for the next meeting. Experienced plumbers have recently visited the jail with the city engineer and they are preparing statements showing the cost of eliminating the present sanitary facilities and replacing them with something more durable and modern. The entire system in the jail at present is reported to be in bad condition owing chiefly to the corrosion of pipes which have rusted and caused leaks. The grand jury special reference to this condition and pointed out the necessity of the interior of the jail being repainted. Estimates on this cost also are being prepared.

Say Farmers Not Getting a Fair Price For Goods

RICHMOND, March 25.—Farmers of the country are not receiving a fair price for their products, according to the March bulletin of the State department of agriculture.

"The farmer needs primarily three safety points," the Bulletin asserts. "1. A price level as high as the point at which indebtedness was contracted; 2. stability of the price level so established; 3. farm prices selling on a parity with industrial products, so that profits in farming may be on a par with other business."

Consumers throughout the United States paid for the 1923 crop three times as much as the farmer, received for it, the bulletin continues, adding that "this is the bottom rock of all the troubles and disasters that have fallen so heavily upon the shoulders of virtually 6,000,000 farmers."

Farmers have passed through three years of depression and the outlook for the fourth shows "little improvement except where farm co-operative associations are in force," the bulletin asserts.

"The price of farm products," it says, "should be double the prices farmers are now receiving to justify the prices consumers are paying."

TOWN TOPICS

The Danville Traction and Power Company has begun advertising the approaching ten-day experiment when the five-cent fare will be reverted to as an experiment. The fare, replacing the present seven-cent fare will become operative on April 6th, Sunday, and will last for 10 days. Printed notices and circulars are being placed in the street cars, calling attention to the fact. Traction company officials have seriously studied the question of the test being a fair one with the mills operating on a curtailed schedule which results in lighter travel three days in the week than would be the case if the mills were on full time. It has been decided, however, to go through with the experiment as planned, it being not feasible to switch from the five-cent fare to the seven-cent fare on those days when the mills are partially closed. If the five-cent experiment results in a largely increased patronage and justifies its continuance it will be maintained.

The city council held a called meeting at noon today for the purpose of taking action on the electric works improvement bond ordinance recently introduced before the council. Adoption of this ordinance which authorizes the issue and the sale of $100,000 bonds could not be taken at the last meeting as it had not lain over the requisite thirty days. The electric works bonds will now be advertised for sale and bids will be opened by the finance committee on May 1st, at three o'clock.

The Rotary Club held its regular luncheon at one o'clock today in the Burton Hotel. Randolph Perkins and J. M. Seegar had charge of the programme, the other member of the committee, Charles B. Clements being now in Florida, striving to shake off something akin to hay fever, from which he has been recently troubled.

E. V. Smith, a member of the city fire department, who recently narrowly escaped death in a collision with a street car, was out yesterday for the first time. His fractured skull is mending and he expects to fully recover from the serious injury he sustained. Mr. Smith expressed sincere appreciation of the solicitude of his friends during his illness.

John Malcom, who has charge of the switchboard in the Patton street fire station where the fire alarm terminals are placed, last night installed the new system to a new set of batteries recently installed at a cost of some $300. The improved cells are the latest product of the Gamewell organization which specializes in fire alarm equipment, and the new system is considered superior to the others. The cutover will be completed tonight.

The decisions committee of the Community Welfare Association yesterday in discussing the problems of the family feeling the result of local industrial conditions, found three churches and one or more individuals prepared to be of material assistance. The offers made were promptly accepted, clothes being offered, school-books for some of the children and free membership in the Y. M. C. A. offered some members of the family.

The date for the campaign to secure the $50,000 necessary to erect the proposed addition in the rear of the Young Men's Christian Association has not been definitely set but tentative plans are to launch it about the middle of May in order to displace it before the summer. The national organization will play its part in assisting to raise the funds and the Danville Y will have the full benefit of the financial service bureau and a committee of financial campaign managers who will send an organization here for that purpose. The date of the drive will largely depend on the counsel of this service bureau. The plans for the addition have been adopted and no objection is expected to be made from them. The addition will cover territory in the rear of the present building and will not increase the present frontage.

The seven-weeks' old baby recently offered for adoption by the Salvation Army, will this afternoon be ushered into its new home on Main street. Judge D. P. Withers will be present with the necessary papers legalizing the adoption which are expected to be signed. The infant was delivered at a service held last Sunday, this being similar to a christening service.

Contract has been let to A. B. Cabanis for the construction of a seven room brick dwelling to be erected by F. W. Denny on Marshall Terrace. The building exclusive of plumbing and heating will cost about $7,500 and work is to be started at once. This is the seventh home to be built on the newly opened street running between Watson and Virginia avenues.

The authorities of Lincoln county are planning to try Macon Hudson on April 2nd on car stealing charges regardless of any arrangement for the transfer of the accused into Virginia where he is charged on seven indictments with car larceny. First indication of this reached Chief of Police J. R. Bell yesterday when he received a letter asking that certain witnesses be summoned and asked to attend the trial. Governor Trimble has not been heard from regarding the extradition of Hudson to Danville since state authorities disapproved the matter and received his sanction in the effort to secure the prisoner.

REBELS IN CONTROL OF HONDURAS BRITISH FLIERS HOP OFF CITY NOT IN THEIR HANDS

SINGLE PLANE BEGINS FLIGHT AROUND WORLD

Two Fliers Undertake Private Venture in Globe-Circling Attempt.

(By The Associated Press.)
CALSHOT, England, March 25.—In bright, calm weather, A. Stuart MacLaren, flying officer Plenderleith and Sergeant Andrews took to the air today in their Vickers Vimy plane for their flight around the world, only forty minutes behind their schedule.

To the accompaniment of cheers of a large crowd, they were carried out of Southampton water by a squad of naval planes and land planes. Lord Thomson, the air minister, bade them God speed. Only enough gasoline for a 15-hour flight was carried and the airmen expect to reach Lyons, 435 miles distant, before sunset. They will proceed from Lyons to Rome, 550 miles tomorrow.

Heavy Damage Suit Begins In Court at Chatham

(Special to The Bee.)
CHATHAM, Va., March 25.—The trial of the suit instituted by Louise Tugman, through her mother, Mrs. Stella Tugman, of Schiefel, against the Riverside and Dan River Mills for the recovery of $75,000, was begun in the circuit court this morning. The suit is one of the largest in point of damages sought that has been tried here for several years and it has been pending for several terms. The plaintiff alleges that when a child she fell into a post hole and sustained spinal injuries of a permanent nature, it being charged that the injury was consequent to an act of negligence on the part of the corporation. The mill corporation denies negligence and contends that the present affliction of the plaintiff is due to some cause anterior to her alleged fall into the post hole. It is also set forth that the damages asked for are excessive.

The trial of the case is expected to continue through tomorrow and it is expected to be in the hands of the jury before Thursday. There are more than seventy witnesses in the case and there will be considerable technical medical evidence heard on both sides. Harris and Harvey, counsel for the corporation, are appearing for the defense and Alken and Benton and Harry Berman are appearing for the plaintiff.

When court recessed for dinner the plaintiff had put five witnesses on the stand.

Jack Bulger, Mickey Walker's Manager, Dead

(By The Associated Press.)
NEWARK, N. J., March 25.—Jack Bulger, manager of Mickey Walker, world's welterweight boxing champion, died today.

Bulger was operated upon for appendicitis last week and peritonitis developed.

Bulger was reported to have been taken to a hospital at Philadelphia with Johnny Gill and hastened to the hospital where he offered his blood. Physicians after tests selected the manager's brother, William Bulger.

Bulger was 35 years old.

Severe Quake Is Recorded

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—An earthquake of pronounced character was registered on the seismograph of Georgetown University yesterday afternoon beginning at 3:36 p. m. and lasting until 4 p. m. Father Tondori placed its center at 1,800 miles south of Washington.

A second shock was recorded beginning at 8:13 a. m. today reaching its maximum at 9:25 a. m. and dying out at about 11 a. m. Father Tondori described the disturbance as "rather severe" and said it appeared to be centered in a southerly direction.

WILL TAKE PROBE OF LAND FRAUDS TO SENATE FLOOR

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—Protesting at the manner in which the Senate's investigation into alleged frauds in the Rio Grande Valley is being conducted, Senator Heflin, Democrat, Alabama, author of the investigating resolution, announced today he would carry the fight to the floor of the Senate.

Chief Postal Inspector Simmons was on the witness stand and George H. Hill, attorney for R. B. Creager, Republican National committeeman from Texas, was examining the witness. There were questions also by Chairman Moses.

Senator Heflin protested against what he termed the "cross-cut saw arrangement the chair has with Mr. Hill."

Chairman Moses denied that any such arrangement existed.

Mr. Hill asked if Simmons knew that James R. Page, the Kansas City attorney, who is assisting Senator Heflin as prosecutor, was a fugitive from justice had been the subject of disbarment proceedings and had solicited persons alleged to have been defrauded. Simmons replied that he knew of these things in a general way.

Page, in an address to Chairman Moses, charged that Mr. Creager had started disbarment proceedings against him.

It was brought out in this discussion that the committee expected to hold meetings in Texas later.

Virginia Lee Martin, of Los Angeles, 19-year-old junior, is heralded today as the most beautiful girl at the University of California. She's queen of this year's "C" circus—the annual spring frolic at the university.

MORE EVIDENCE IN LAND FRAUD PROBE IS GIVEN

Further Correspondence Between Officials and Prominent Men Presented

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—Further correspondence between officials in Washington and prominent men in Texas, was presented to the special sub-committee of the Senate post-office and post roads committee today when it resumed investigation of the matter.

James R. Page, counsel for some 600 purchasers of valley land, was on hand with an armful of telegrams, letters and memoranda from the files of the department of justice and the postoffice department.

He told the investigators the record would show that the postoffice man had been in the Rio Grande Valley and had been dropping after R. B. Creager, Republican National Committeeman from that state and other officials of the land corporations, had visited government officials in Washington.

Rush D. Simmons, chief postal inspector, the only witness thus far called, had not completed his testimony at the conclusion of the opening session yesterday and former Postmaster General Hays also was ready to appear today.

BANDITS ROB AGENT

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 25.—Bandits early today visited the busy Borough Hall station of the Interborough Subway in Brooklyn, struck down Samuel Ruzzo, the ticket agent, and robbed him of $750, the night receipts.

Another Fatal Burning Reported From Ruffin, N. C.

News of another fatal burning reached here last night when it became known that Mrs. J. D. Lipford, an aged woman of the Ruffin, N. C. community, perished early Saturday morning from injuries sustained at her home. None was with her at the time she caught fire but it is believed that she was unconscious most of that time, but was apparently not suffering. Deceased was 77 years and almost six months old. About nine years ago she had suffered a stroke of paralysis from which she had never fully recovered and since then had sustained several slighter seizures. For the last three years her vitality had so waned that she was practically an invalid.

Her husband, J. P. Lipford, two sons, C. A. Lipford, of Mt. Cross, and D. L. Lipford, of Mayfield, N. C., and two daughters, Mrs. L. L. King, of Bachelors' Hall, Va., and Mrs. Jetha Ashworth, of Mayfield, N. C., survive. She had 28 grandchildren and 21 great-grandchildren.

The body of the aged lady was buried in the family burial-ground near Bachelors' Hall, Rev. R. W. Yow and Elder Frank Pruitt, conducting services.

Kiwanians Will Entertain Farmers

The Danville Kiwanis have arranged for an interesting supper to be held on Thursday night at the Country Club. The meeting will be a novel departure since it will be known as farmer's night. Every Kiwanian has been asked to bring with him a farmer friend and indication point to be between 65 and 75 farmers attending the supper and joining in with the usual Kiwanian brand of merriment, which goes with such meetings. The hour set for the affair is 6:30. The programme for the event is a zealously guarded secret at the present time but it promises to be well up to standard.

COOLIDGE'S MISSING TOM CAT IS RETURNED HOME

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—The radio, often used to locate missing persons and stolen automobiles, was proven today to be equally effective in finding missing cats.

Stations WCAP of Washington and WEAR of New York took part last night at the request of White House officials, in broadcasting a notice that Tige, President Coolidge's pet Tom cat, had been missing since last week. Soon after the President reached his office this morning, a navy building guard arrived with the missing feline.

CAPITAL ONLY CITY NOT IN THEIR HANDS

BANKER TELLS OF LOAN MADE TO FALL IN 1916

Says That Former Secretary Did Not Borrow Money in Past Three Years as Charged—Did Make Loan to Cattle Company.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—M. D. Thatcher, president of the First National Bank of Pueblo, Colo., was questioned by the oil committee today about financial transactions between B. Fall and that bank.

The witness said Fall had been a customer of the bank since 1913 or 1914.

"Did the bank make any loan to him during 1921?" asked Senator Walsh.

"I have the records here. No, sir," said the witness.

"Or 1922?"

"No, sir."

Thatcher said Fall borrowed $15,000 from the bank in 1916 and paid it in May, 1922.

Asked about Fall's statement to the committee that he arranged to get funds from the D. Thatcher estate, Thatcher said the Tres Ritos Cattle Company (Fall's company) had done so.

"What do you know about that transaction?" asked Senator Walsh.

"We made some loans to the Tres Ritos Cattle Company. We loaned them $100,000 and there is an overdraft of about $25,000, which has probably been consolidated into a note."

"It was loaned in separate notes running from $5,000 to $10,000. There may have been some of $15,000. The amounts were drawn when they reached a round figure, when a note would be drawn to cover it."

The transactions, the witness said, were carried on through Mr. Evarard. "Mr. Evarard told me," said Thatcher, "that they were trying to make improvements which would run as high as $200,000. He asked me if I would be able to make a loan. I said yes, if reasonable. The advancements have reached $102,000 or $103,000 much interest for the few months passed."

"Anything said about security?"

"I had the stock of the cattle company."

Thatcher listed the loans. The first was in 1921 and the next was on September 22nd, 1922.

Thatcher said he knew nothing about Fall's purchase of the Harris ranch for $25,000, nor where the money came from.

Senator Walsh wanted the details about Fall's borrowings from the bank.

"I think until this loan for water power improvements the maximum was $25,000 a year," said the witness.

Thatcher said he would not have advanced money to purchase new properties. He identified Evarard as Fall's son-in-law, and manager of both the Fall ranch and the Thatcher Ranch. He is a cousin of Thatcher.

Government Leaders to Throw Entire Strength Against Tegucigalpa in Final Attack and Success Is Expected.

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—The Honduran revolutionists are in complete possession of the entire country, with the exception of Tegucigalpa, the capital. American Minister Morris reported today to the State Department that General Ferrera and Carlos, revolutionary commanders, were said to have agreed to throw their united strength against Tegucigalpa in a final attack, the success of which was predicted in dispatches to the Navy department.

In spite of the situation facing de facto government leaders, they said were despondent when their sister Anna Kloster, 35, who had cared for them, died suddenly, according to a theory of police who yesterday found the bodies of the three in the building in which they had lived, fifty years.

Dead for about ten days, the three were found by a small boy, believing the building deserted, crawled through a broken window in search of junk. Neighbors recalled that the family once operated a prosperous bakery, but that the blind brothers seldom were seen. They owned considerable property in the vicinity, the elder brother, a blind man, ministering to the brothers after the death of their father, fourteen years ago.

A post mortem examination has been ordered.

Trio Found Dead From Starvation

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, March 25.—Death from starvation claimed Endre and Theodore Kloster, 70 and 32 years old, and blind sibling, when their sister Anna Kloster, 35, who had cared for them, died suddenly, according to a theory of police who yesterday found the bodies of the three in the building in which they had lived, fifty years.

Dead for about ten days, the three were found by a small boy, believing the building deserted, crawled through a broken window in search of junk. Neighbors recalled that the family once operated a prosperous bakery, but that the blind brothers seldom were seen. They owned considerable property in the vicinity, the elder brother, a blind man, ministering to the brothers after the death of their father, fourteen years ago.

Co-Ops' Season Extended Week, Or to April 4

The Tobacco Growers' Co-operative Marketing Association has decided to extend the delivery season until April 4th or Friday week, it became known this morning. Farmers' warehouses, one of the two local receiving stations, will be closed insofar as grading is concerned after Friday, and from that time on until April 4th all grading will be done in Producer's warehouse.

Local street. It was pointed out that Farmers' warehouse will remain open for the benefit of grower members who wish to come to town, but no more grading will be done there after this coming Friday.

Receipts at both stations this morning were surprisingly good, there being about twenty wagon loads of tobacco in each house. The prolongation of the season is being done to afford members a final opportunity to bring what tobacco they have on hand to the market.

Kellam's Show Pleases Audience

Walt Kellam's company, which he called the "Merry Go Round Revue," holds the boards at the Majestic this week and should their other bills be as good as the one presented last night, they will have no trouble in playing to good audiences. The show last night was well received, lasting over an hour. It is filled with features and specialties, which are very entertaining. The show opens in minutes and then shifts to a fact in the days of King Tut-in fact is supposed to represent the tomb itself. Many funny situations are spilled in this part of the program. It is unusual from anything seen here so far. A change in program will take place tomorrow.

POOLE'S ASSISTANT IS INDICTED ON 4 COUNTS

(Special to The Bee.)
HALIFAX, Va., March 25.—Henry Ford, assistant cashier of the State Bank of Virginia, was indicted by the Halifax grand jury in session here yesterday evening on four counts. His case has been set for next Saturday morning, at which time he will be answerable under his bail bond of $15,000.

The four indictments against Ford allege that he made false entries in the bank's books and forged balances. One of the specific items is $25,000 which, it is charged, was falsely set down in making estimates of the bank's total resources. Ford has retained counsel and will combat the indictments which carry a minimum penalty of one year each and a maximum of ten years.

Thomas G. Poole, the accused cashier of the bank, is to be tried on Thursday. There is still considerable doubt as to what he will do, though it is persistently reported that he will throw himself on the mercy of Judge W. M. Barakat. Should this be done the former cashier probably would be afforded the opportunity of making some statement bearing on the transactions which created an alleged deficit of $133,000 with possibly $60,000 or more to be added to it. State Senator Marshall B. Booker, who with W. M. Tuck, is defending both of the accused bankers, stands in reply to a direct enquiry yesterday that it had not been decided yet whether Poole would plead guilty or defend his cause. Commonwealth's Attorney James S. Easley is preparing to prosecute and has the assurance that the twelve or fifteen State witnesses upon whom he would rely for a conviction will be on hand next Thursday morning. It is expected that there will be an unusually large crowd on hand in view of the widespread interest created in the fate of the accused man.

Home Economics Conference to Be Held at Capital

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, Va., March 25.—The program for the annual conference of home economics teachers in Virginia, to be held in Richmond April 23-25, is being arranged, according to an announcement today, by the state department of education.
Several experts in home economics from Washington and the state department will be among those delivering lectures during the conference. The chief purpose of the work is to outline the work for the year.
"The first vocational work under the Smith-Hughes law was established in Virginia 1917-18," according to a department statement. "This work included vocational agriculture, vocational home economics and trade and industrial education."
In 1921-22, thirty-eight counties well-distributed over the state maintained forty high schools in vocational home economics. Altogether, 2,100 girls and women were enrolled in day and evening classes not counting those enrolled for teacher-training. This work should not be confused with similar work taken as elective subjects in our various high schools. Thousands of girls enroll annually for these shorter courses.
In 1922-23, there were forty-five schools offering vocational home economics in forty-three counties, forty-one of these schools were state-aided and four federally aided. In addition to these there was one federally aided colored school.
"The total enrollment for these school was 1,341. Altogether, 3,172 girls were enrolled in day and evening classes. The requests for home-economics is now running ahead of the financial resources of the state. Where this work has been offered, it has become generally popular and should be encouraged through extending the number of departments in other counties of the Commonwealth."

To Assess Land and Property Is a Difficult Task

(By The Associated Press.)
RICHMOND, March 25.—While I will sit on the equalization board and devote my best powers thereto, I have no idea that any three men now living, or who have ever lived in Virginia, are competent to assess the lands and personal property of the State.
This statement was made by Rosewell Page, second auditor, who, with the State auditor and treasurer, will be a member of the new State equalization board created by the 124th general assembly, in a published interview today.
The general impression seems to be that equalization means the raising of taxation that is below a certain figure, while the fact is just the opposite. That equalization might mean the reduction of taxation in cases where the total is above the tax figure," he said. "While there are inequalities in sections and even in localities, no one could sit down and arbitrarily undertake to say that the returns in a given case are unjust unless the facts of that case are taken into account."
Under provisions of the new law, equalization will be effected through local boards under the supervision of the State Commission. Passage of the measure followed a heated legislative battle during the closing hours of the assembly.

Lewis to Defend Title Against Zbyszko Tonight

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, March 25.—Ed (Strangler) Lewis, world's heavyweight wrestling champion, will defend his title tonight against Stanislaus Zbyszko, 35 year old former champion.
In a bout here last month in the third and deciding fall, Lewis "heeled" and stunned Zbyszko. The referee awarded the bout to Lewis, declaring his tactics were legal.

NAVY IS WILBUR'S FIRST LOVE

By A. H. FREDERICK
SAN FRANCISCO, March 25.—The "middles" used to call him "Magic." And among his old cronies at Annapolis—most of them rear admirals today—Curtis D. Wilbur still wears that moniker.
The name has meant considerable to him. Something almost magic finally has sent him back to the life he's always loved.
"Magic," the mathematics shark at the naval academy and left tackle on the Navy eleven in the 80's, is returning to the service, not as a green ensign, but as the navy's longest-serving officer.
"My earliest dreams," he says, "were of a sailor's life. But who could have guessed my career as a lawyer and jurist was fitting me to return to my first love?"

Lawyer and Judge
Wilbur left the navy four months after his graduation from Annapolis. His father was a lawyer and wanted his son to be a lawyer, too.
He inaugurated the first juvenile court in Los Angeles, studying law a night. In 1890 he was admitted to the bar. Nine years later he became district attorney. And another four years saw him elected superior judge.
He inaugurated the first juvenile court in Los Angeles and drafted bills that formed the basis for California's juvenile laws.
Followed his transfer to the criminal courts. The same thoroughness marked his work there.
Verdict and sentence did not close a case for him. He made frequent visits to "his boys" at San Quentin penitentiary.

More than one ex-convict gives a fresh start in the world to Curtis D. Wilbur, the judge who sentenced him.
Wilbur was named a supreme court justice in 1919. Four years later he was chosen chief justice.
The year before he entered the district attorney's office, Judge Wilbur married Miss Olive Doolittle. The wedding was the culmination of a romance begun in the high school at Jamestown, N. D.
At "C. E." Convention
Wilbur's departure for Annapolis, and Miss Doolittle's matriculation at a boarding school in Fairbault, N. D., interrupted their courtship—save for frequent letters. It was renewed when Miss Doolittle came to San Francisco to attend a Christian Endeavor convention Wilbur met her at the depot.
The Wilburs have four children. They are Edna May, a teacher in the Chico (Cal.) high school, Lyman D., a civil engineer at Redwood, Calif., Paul Curtis, a senior at the University of California, and Leonard 17 in high school here.
Judge Wilbur's chief hobby is his home. He's never passed up the responsibility of rearing his children to his wife.
Wilbur likes camping trips, hikes, radio and the movies now and then. But he's never played golf.

Until recently, the Wilburs found much pleasure in their auto—the same car we've had for seven years," Mrs. Wilbur explained. Now one of the boys' away from home is using it.

Villa Welcomes Wife Hasn't Seen For Three Years

(By The Associated Press.)
SEATTLE, March 25.—Pancho Villa's champion flyweight boxer, yesterday welcomed his wife, who, as bride of a week sent him to the United States three years ago in pursuit of championship laurels. She came from Manila, Philippine Islands, on the steamship President Grant. The Villars will see Manila, Flores, Philippine boxer, fight tonight and then go to New York where Villa will begin training for a strenuous summer.

Fifty Years Ago

A young man who practiced medicine in Pennsylvania became famous and was called in consultation in many cases and was successful in his success in the treatment of disease. This was Dr. Pierce, who finally made up his mind to place some of his medicines before the public and moving to Buffalo, N. Y., put up what he called the "Pain-Expeller," and placed it with the druggists in every town.
Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has long been recognized as a tonic for diseased persons in womanhood after suffering from the nervous, dizzy, weak and disordered system of weakness of her sex—a woman is quickly restored to health by its use. Thousands of women testify that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has entirely eradicated their distressing ailments.
More recently that wonderful discovery of Dr. Pierce's called An-uric (for kidney and backache) has been successfully used by many thousands who write Dr. Pierce of the benefits received—that their backache, rheumatism, and other symptoms of uric acid deposits in joint or muscles have been completely conquered by its use.

THEY HAVE "TEAPOTTED" SINCE 1797

By CHARLES P. STEWART

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Capital capitol scandals are not new. The United States had an outbreak of government scandals in the 70's as bad as the present scandals are.
The amounts involved weren't as large in dollars and cents, but money wasn't handled in such sums in those days. The equivalent values were as large.
The first of the scandals "broke" in President Grant's administration, in 1872.

Vice President "In"
The Union Pacific railroad was building. It had government financial support on a large scale. A company called the Credit Mobilier was formed to do the work and to sell material, equipment and supplies to the road.

The idea was to charge ridiculously high prices, to take in payment Union Pacific stock and bonds at prices ridiculously low.
The government being interested, it became necessary to "split" the "graft"—they called it "boodles" then—with numerous officials. When exposure came it was found that the officials included the vice president, the speaker of the house, three senators, several representatives and scores of departmental executives in nearly every governmental branch.
In 1873 a particularly bold treasury raid was attempted. Congress voted stiff salary increase to all its members, not only for the future but also for the two preceding years. Such an outcry went up that the lawmakers were frightened into rescinding this act the next year, but in the meantime many had drawn their money and the government never got it back.

240 INDICTED
In 1874 it was discovered that distilleries throughout the west had been defrauding the revenue department systematically of enormous sums. Secretary of the Treasury Brewster came to the aid of the law and had been fighting it, but the grafters had representatives in every governmental department where they needed influence and laughed at him for a long time.
Two hundred and forty indictments followed this exposure, including the chief clerk of the treasury and the private secretary to the president.

In 1875 Secretary of War Belknap was caught selling government appointments and signing government contracts at a profit to himself. Impeachment proceedings were begun against him but before he could be thrown out of office he resigned.
From the fact that another Republican administration followed Grants, it might be guessed that the people didn't take these scandals very seriously. But they did. The next campaign was between Hayes and Tilden, in which the Democrats won a popular victory, though they lost the presidency by a narrow electoral commission.

Cost Buins Presidency
The Star Route scandal "broke" in 1881. It related to mail transportation by other than the regular railroad and steamship lines. Much western transportation was by stage then and prices were high. The Postoffice Department was shaken to its foundation, the second assistant postmaster general was indicted, one of its own members was tried by the Senate and scores of political careers were blighted for all time.

As prominent a public man as James G. Blaine was hit by the Little Rock & Fort Smith Railroad fare scandal, and though his defense was pretty good, the affair had much to do with costing him the presidency in 1884.

Negro Bootlegger Gets 2 Year Term In Halifax Court
(Special to The Bee.)
HALIFAX, Va., March 25.—Judge W. M. Barksdale imposed a severe sentence on Jerry Mosely, a negro bootlegger, in the circuit court here yesterday. The negro was charged with engaging in the sale of ardent spirits and he was sentenced to serve two years' hard time in the penitentiary. The record showed that he had offended previously.

Finds Kellogg's Bran "Easy way to avoid constipation" after suffering for years

Constipation is a dangerous disease. It can lead to many others. Twenty years' suffering with constipation undetermined this man's health. Kellogg's Bran restored it—as it has done for thousands. This is what he says:

"Gentlemen:
After eating Kellogg's Bran twice a day for one month I find it not only an 'Easy Way to Avoid Constipation,' but an easy way to get my stomach to cure it. I have been troubled with constipation for more than twenty years. After adopting the milk diet which I did my stomach greatly improved, and I find it a specific for constipation.
I deem it only justice that you should know what your present has done for me, and what it is capable of doing for others."
(The original of this letter is on file at the Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Mich.)

Kellogg's Bran relieves mild and chronic constipation because it is ALL bran. It brings sure results. It sweeps, cleans and purifies the intestine in nature's own way. Don't experiment. Only ALL bran can be 100 per cent effective.
If eaten regularly, Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is guaranteed to bring permanent relief—or your grocer returns your money. You should eat two tablespoonfuls daily—in chronic cases, with every meal.
The flavor is delicious—nut-like—cooked and krumbled. Enjoy it with milk or cream, sprinkled on other cereals, cooked with hot cereals, or in the delightful recipes on every package. Made in Battle Creek. Sold by grocers everywhere.

Important To All Women

Readers of This Paper

Thousands upon thousands of women have kidney or bladder trouble and never suspect it. Women's complaints often prove to be nothing else but kidney trouble, or the result of kidney or bladder disease. If the kidneys are not in a healthy condition, they may cause the other organs to become diseased. You may suffer pain in the back, irritable and may be despondent; it makes any one so. But hundreds of women claim that Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, by restoring health to the kidneys, proved to be just the remedy needed to overcome such conditions. Many send for a sample bottle to see what Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine will do for them. By enclosing ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., you may receive sample size bottle by Parcel Post. You can purchase medium and large size bottles at all drug stores.—adv.

HELPFUL HINTS

GRIDDLE CAKES
In making griddle cakes with sweet milk, omit soda and add two teaspoons of baking powder and one tablespoon melted butter.

HEAT IN ADVANCE
For broiling or roasting, have the oven burners lighted and the doors closed at least five minutes before using the oven.

RESTORES FLAVOR
Boiling expels air from water and purifies it, but also makes it taste flat. Boiled water should be poured back and forth several times from one pitcher to another, or shaken in a large bottle, to restore its flavor.

CREASING GRIDDLE
Use a piece of beef suet on a fork to grease your pancake griddle.

CLEANING ZINC
Zinc discolors very easily. Every drop of water allowed to stand on it makes a spot. This may be cleaned with a little kerosene rubbed on with a flannel or damp cloth.

DAMP TOWEL
When baking in the kitchen keep a damp towel at hand on which to wipe your fingers as they become sticky, and you will probably keep your apron much tidier.

ONE CUPFUL
Twelve tablespoons of liquid are equivalent to one cupful.

D. C. spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Booth, Leavitt, Va., and Mrs. J. H. DeLap, of Fildesville, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Booth.

South Dakota Is Holding Primary Elections Today

(By The Associated Press.)
SIOUX FALLS, S. D., March 25.—Presidential preference and United States senatorial and state nominating elections in South Dakota today. Both the Republican and Democratic presidential candidates being voted on while in those two and the Farmer-Labor party, Senatorial and State officer nominations are being made for the November election. President Coolidge and Senator Hiram Johnson seek the Republican presidential endorsement and William Gibbs McAdoo, candidate for the Democratic endorsement on the Democratic ticket has opposition from a minority faction in that party, which seeks to send an unopposed delegation to the New York convention. Newspaper predictions as to the probable size of the vote have varied from 55 to 75 per cent. One survey indicates the total Republican registration was not more than 65 per cent of the 100,000 voters of the 1922 primary.

200 Arrests and Much Liquor Is Seized In Raids

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 25.—In a drive on bootleggers in the district surrounding the Brooklyn Navy yard 209 arrests have been made and thousands of dollars worth of liquor seized.
In describing the drive today prohibition headquarters said three agents were trailed throughout the three weeks of their investigation by an automobile loaded with sailors in uniform, dress suits, needles, wigs and other paraphernalia which made necessary frequent changes of disguise.
The drive was ordered as the result of complaints made by Rear Admiral Charles E. Fluckett.

CAPTAIN AND TWO OFFICERS LOST IN SINKING OF LINER

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 24.—Captain Neilson and two officers of the Atlantic Fruit Liner Glyndon, which sank sixty miles off Cape Hatteras Saturday morning were drowned and the remaining 24 members of the crew were saved by the Steamer Cananovra about noon Saturday, when the company learned.

Officers of the Atlantic Fruit Company received the information through a radio message relayed from Captain Kranz of the Cananovra who said he arrived too late to take the officers off the Glyndon which, he said, was a total loss.
The 24 men, most of them Spaniards, were found adrift in a lifeboat according to Captain Kranz, who said he was bringing them here where the vessel is due April 6.
The Glyndon, of 2,722 tons, was on her way to New York from Cuba, with a cargo of sugar valued at $350,000. The vessel was said to be worth $200,000.

GLYNDON MAY HAVE SENT MYSTERIOUS S. O. S. CALL

(By The Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., March 24.—First indication of the sinking of the Atlantic Fruit Liner Glyndon received here was sent in a wireless message from one of the survivors to a relative in Brooklyn. The message, signed "Martin" was addressed to "Mrs. Anderson, 329 Eighty-first street, Brooklyn," and was as follows:
"Don't worry; saved; Glyndon lost."
Sinking of the Glyndon, it is believed here, may prove the solution to mysterious distress calls picked up late Saturday night at the Hampton Roads naval station from an unidentified steamer off the coast, apparently in a sinking condition.
New York reports state the sinking of the boat was at noon Saturday. In that event, it is regarded as more than likely that the mysterious S. O. S. were sounded by the Glyndon's wireless operator in an effort to summon aid to the sinking ship. The S. O. S. sounded on a continuous low wave length, such as used by emergency equipment and for radio broadcasting programs, ceased suddenly shortly after 11 o'clock Saturday night.

STOOD BY SINCE SATURDAY

(By Chicago Tribune Service)
NORFOLK CITY, N. C., March 24.—The steamship Glyndon founded Saturday morning in latitude 34 degrees thirty second north longitude, 74 degrees, according to a message received here by naval radio station from the steamship Cananovra, which stood by the ship from before day-break Saturday until shortly after nine o'clock today when the vessel went down. The message stated that

The Tangle

An Intimate Story of Innermost Emotions Revealed in Private Letters

LETTER FROM LESLIE PRESCOTT TO LESLIE PRESCOTT, CARE OF THE SECRET DRAW, CONTINUED

I sat up very straight, and winked very hard, and as my eyelids closed down I felt as though hot irons were searing into my soul. It is the doctor's little Marquise, but honestly I had never dreamed that any scandal about little Jack could attach itself to John.

I expect that all the town is talking about us and saying that I have been deceived into adopting John's child. I wonder if I can go on with it.

As I sat beside John I could not speak, for I knew that John was telling the truth. I knew that in my subconsciousness I had had a suspicion all the time the baby belonged to my husband, although consciously I would never own it even to myself. "Did you know that Paula Perier was going to leave her baby outside your door, Jack?"

"Of course I didn't know it, dear. Much as you needed the baby at that time, for you know the doctor had said that unless we could supply a baby to take the place of the one you lost from the accident, he would not be responsible for your reason or your life—I would not have been so glib as that, dear. Surely you must not think that I could conspire with Paula to force my own child upon you without your consent."

"Did you love her, Jack?"
"I don't know, dear. I didn't love her as I love you. She is beautiful and clever, and amusing. We were together almost all the time for a little while. I think she loved me very much. But I swear to you, Leslie, that I have never seen nor spoken to her since you and I were married. The moment I saw you, Leslie, I knew you were the only woman in the world for me, and I have been absolutely true to you since the moment I saw you. Do you remember it, darling—it was at the Robertsons' party."

"Well do I remember it, little Marquise. I know I asked myself when I got home at night, why it was that, out of all the men that I met at that party, I singled out Jack. He seemed to be the only one that I could remember distinctly. When I thought of him my heart beat a little faster."

It was a whirlwind courtship. I was married to Jack almost before I knew it.

As I thought of my wedding, much that had been mysterious about John's visit to Albany was explained. As though he had read my thoughts John continued: "You also remember, Leslie, when I went back, supposedly on business, just before our wedding. I went because Paula had a bundle of letters I had written her when I thought I was passionately in love with her, and as I was closing the book I wanted those letters back."

"Did you get them?"
"Not at that time, but got them later."

"What did you do with them?"
"I burned them immediately."

How to Stay Single Explained at Last.

"Listen, men! Do you want to stay single through June? Being leap year this will be the hardest June since back in 1920. If you can reach July without taking on an opponent you will be fairly safe until the weather cools off a little.

July is too warm for two people to sit in the same chair. But June is just right. There will be 30 days in June, and 30 nights. And think of the many nights before June!

To help you stay single through this dangerous period, Tom Sims Newspaper has secured a series of articles on "To Stay Single."

Today's article is as follows: Kissing a girl when she doesn't want you to and not kissing her when she does want you to will keep a man single through June.

FARM NEWS

Ants are getting out their spiked shoes to wear while rambling up and down picnicers.

TAX NOTICE

This being a cheerful paper the "Tax Notices" have been dropped.

MUSIC NOTES

Setting fire to the house and yelling for the fire department twice daily strengthens the neck muscles for singing.

HOW TO MARRY

Shine up your face a bit. You can't catch a man if your face looks like it has been slept in.

BROTHER TOM'S KITCHEN

Try burning only one side of the toast, leaving the other side for butter.

GARDEN HINTS

Be careful about spraying to kill the bugs. Many spraying compounds merely whet their appetites.

Tentative Plan of Distribution for Va. Highway Funds

(By The Associated Press.)
NORFOLK, Va., March 22.—Tentative allocations of state highway funds for 1924, including new revenue for 1924 available and money held up from 1923, were announced today by the state highway commission as a result of its meeting at Fairfax Courthouse Tuesday.

In addition to allocations for the eight construction districts the commission apportioned the $1,000,000 fund set aside by the general assembly for connecting up links on through highways. This amount will be expended on the connecting up Norfolk-Richmond highway by way of Suffolk, the Lee Highway in southwest Virginia and the Valley Turnpike.

Hearings on the allocations will be given by the commission in Richmond on April 10 and 11.

The total amount covered by the tentative allocations is $4,457,000. By districts, the total are: Bristol $413,000; Salem $225,000; Fredericksburg $250,000; Richmond $536,000; Suffolk $444,000; Lynchburg $462,000; Staunton $485,000; Culpepper $523,000. The $1,000,000 fund for connecting up links is not included in the district totals.

Hearings will be held in the State office building, Richmond, as follows:

April 10: Bristol district 9 a. m. to 11 a. m.; Salem district 11 a. m. to 1 p. m.; Lynchburg district 2 p. m. to 4 p. m.; Staunton district 4 p. m. to 6 p. m.

LOVERS FIND OUT THEY ARE TWINS!

By HAROLD MATSON

CHARLESTOWN, Mass., March 25.—There always had been something strange to James Brady about the pretty little girl who lives at 75 Tremont street, just two blocks from his home, on the slopes of Bunker Hill. James is young, just 19, but for eight years the girl has fascinated him. When he was a small boy sight of her made his heart jump. He blushed when his eyes met hers. Her smile was friendly but it embarrassed him. It brought it back to her defense, and the fellows said he was her beau.

But he wasn't her beau; yet he was drawn to her.

The girl, Josephine Buckley, held a correspondingly tender feeling toward him. He was her hero, her big brother.

As they grew older, playing together, going to school together, James watched her beauty bloom. She had thick black hair, flashing black eyes, soft complexion and a lively smile. And James was particularly proud of her because she didn't go to the public dance halls with the other girls.

It was inevitable that the two should become sweethearts. But an intangible, hidden influence held their love in check.

"I wish I had a sister like you," James confided to her just last week.

"That's it, is it?" retorted the girl, plucked a bit. "Well, I have dreamed that my lost brother is like you. I dreamed that he parts his hair just as you do, and he smiles as you smile."

Unknowningly, in that exchange of affection, they had put their finger on their true relationship.

For James Brady and Josephine Buckley are twins.

A priest in a local Catholic orphanage has just uncovered it.

The two had been separated when their mother died, 15 years ago Mrs. Josephine, an aunt, adopted Josephine, but she couldn't afford to take twins into her already large family. So James was left in the orphanage.

Three years later Mrs. John Brady adopted James as her own son, changing his name.

So it was that the two, living within two blocks of each other, were brought up without knowing their relationship.

Josephine had pined continually for her lost brother and when James Brady entered her life he came as the next best thing.

"Jim's saying he would like me for a sister set me dreaming about my twin again," Josephine explains, and it was at her request that the priest delved into the orphanage's records.

All the Bradys and the Buckleys, in fact, all of Charlestown, are still exclaiming, panting for the breath they have lost:

"Think of that! Josie and Jimmie!"

And the twins are getting acquainted all over again, James embarrassed at the way his sweetheart-sister takes liberties with him, throwing her arms around his neck and kissing him, and Josephine recalling that: "I always did say that my brother would look just like Jimmie."

GERMANS USE TENNIS BALL WITH COVERING OF RUBBER

BERLIN, March 24.—The very latest of the season's novelties among tennis players are tennis balls bearing the monogram of the owner. The initials are made into the covering, which is of rubber, at the time of manufacture, and the cost is only slightly increased. These particular balls are stitcheless, and it is asserted by players that they will outlast the other balls by many games.

A store built for its customers

In building up the Miller & Rhoads business we have always believed it good policy to "begin at the customer and work back"

A WOMAN who shops in a department store is especially sensitive to the spirit of that store. She loves to look over the beautiful things she sees there. She revels in the attractive displays of the lovely things that come from almost every corner of the world. She loves to shop at leisure, to look around without being importuned to buy, to get attention when she wants it. She is keenly appreciative of little niceties of service, the intelligence and attentiveness of the salespeople, and the general spirit of courtesy, good-will and helpfulness.

After a busy morning of shopping, she enjoys lunching in a beautiful tea-room, where she can get deliciously prepared food, properly served, at a reasonable price. A woman appreciates attentive but unobtrusive service in a restaurant.

She likes to shop in a big, roomy, well-lighted store with nice, wide, uncrowded aisles. She expects such personal conveniences as a free checking service, free delivery service, a place where she can get miscellaneous information, buy postage stamps, mail letters, send telegrams, consult railroad time-tables, and a dozen-odd things a shopper likes to do. Above all, she wants a nice, quiet, comfortable rest-room, where she can refresh herself, write a letter, or wait for a friend.

But more than all these, a shopper wants to feel that she is getting full value for every penny expended; that the goods she buys are exactly as represented, and that if she is not satisfied, proper adjustment will be made.

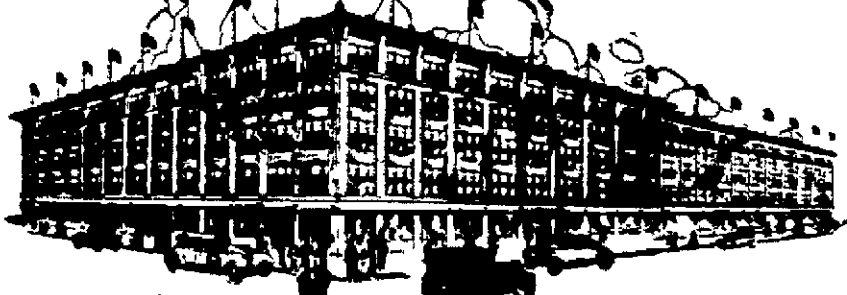

She knows that the tremendous purchasing power of the department store and the small margin of profit make it possible for her to buy at the lowest prices.

The woman who shops at Miller & Rhoads finds it just such a store as she wants. It is just such a store because it was built on a consideration of its customers' wishes. It was built for its customers. That is why Miller & Rhoads have won the good-will and confidence of thousands of loyal friends throughout the Virginias and Carolinas.

If you can't get what you want in your own locality, try

"Southern Mothers Suggested This New Kind of Laxative"

Second of a Series of Three Interviews with W. L. Hand
"During the many years that I ran a drug store at Charlotte, it was an every-day occurrence for women to ask me for something in liquid form to be given the children in place of calomel and castor oil.

"I got to studying this problem and found that if I could get a happy balance between certain vegetable ingredients, some of which act on the liver and some on the bowels, I would be able to fill this very universal and very definite need.

"I employed scientific methods and tested one combination after another until, finally, I hit upon a formula which proved to be exactly right.

Mothers Pleased.
"After that, I answered the daily question by handing out a bottle of Llv-o-Lax, and the demand for it grew so rapidly that I am now recommending Llv-o-Lax to another that I finally had to give up the drug store and start a factory.

Available To All Now.
"Now I am able to tell this story of Llv-o-Lax to every family and to say that you can get Llv-o-Lax at your own drug store.

"If any one in the family is bilious, constipated, stomach not doing its duty, or with a cold coming on, get Llv-o-Lax, it will try.

Really a Double Action.
"I will guarantee that Llv-o-Lax will not only clear the bowels, but relieve liver congestion as well, and it is a little better respect that so many family laxatives fail to do."

"I will be glad to send a sample.

BETTER THAN CALOMEL

Thousands Have Discovered Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a Harmless Substitute

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the substitute for calomel—are a mild but sure laxative, and their effect on the liver is almost instantaneous. These little olive-colored tablets are the result of Dr. Edwards' determination not to treat liver and bowel complaints with calomel. The pleasant little tablets do the good that calomel does, but have no bad after effects. They don't injure the teeth like strong liquids or calomel. They take hold of the trouble and quickly correct it. Why cure the liver at the expense of the teeth? Calomel sometimes plays havoc with the gums. So do strong liquids. It is best not to take calomel. Let Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets take its place.

Headaches, "dullness" and that lazy feeling come from constipation and a disordered liver. Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets when you feel "lousy" and "heavy." They "clear" clouded brain and "perk up" the spirits. 15c and 50c.

HUNT'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By HARRY B. HUNT
WASHINGTON, March 25.—One of the first facts forced home on presidential aspirants in that a candidacy costs money.
No really ambitious candidate is willing to trust to "popular demand" to bring about his nomination. Once nominated, the party organization will stand the cost of the election campaign. But for the pre-convention fight, a candidate needs a sizable bank roll of his own or an "angel." Or both.
An aggressive candidate must have an organization. An organization must have headquarters, secretaries and publicity representatives. And all these require cash.
The problem of an "angel" for at least one presidential "possibility" seems to have been solved without effort on his part.
John W. Davis who will be among those voted for when the balloting begins at the Democratic convention in New York, has announced that he will not turn a hand to get the nomination, although advanced as the favorite son of West Virginia.
Among his sellents he lists concerns such as the Morgan interests. The pay is good, but the work exacting. So John W. just can't give time or attention to being a candidate, he says.
If, of course, Democracy chooses him as its standard bearer—oh, well, in that event, of course, duty would require that he sacrifice himself to make the fight.
Right there is where John's "angel" appears.
The "angel," in this instance, who stands ready to put up the cash and effort necessary to crystallize support for Davis, is former U. S. Senator Clarence Wayland Watson, a fellow West Virginian.

Watson served in the Senate from 1911 to 1913, filling out the unexpired term of Stephen B. Elkins. But while he has dabbled in politics—sufficiently so to land in the Senate for a while—Watson has preferred to play the game on the side, helping or obstructing others, rather than seeking office for himself. His real interest has been in business—coal, railroads, banks.
As a coal operator his interests extended into four states—West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Maryland and Kentucky. Among the big coal companies in which his word is or has been law are the Consolidation Coal Company, the Fairmont Coal Company, the Somerset and the Elk Horn. He is voting trustee for the Seaboard Air Line Railway and a director in a dozen banks and trust companies.
Not as an "angel," but as a booster for the nomination of Samuel M. Ralston of Indiana, on the Democratic ticket, Tom Taggart is just back from the West Indies.
Tom says the trip did his health a lot of good and that he's up on his toes to put across a "sound, substantial Hoosier candidate."
In view of his own physical fitness, however, he has urged Ralston to get in better trim for the race. Ralston's age, 66, is one point that has been raised against him.
Also he is somewhat overweight. So to fit himself for the wear and tear of a presidential campaign, Ralston is now taking daily setting-up exercises—a regular "daily dozen."

11 RUNS IN ONE INNING
(By The Associated Press.)
ST. LOUIS, March 24.—Eleven runs in the eighth inning enabled the St. Louis Cardinals to beat the Philadelphia National 17 to 10 in a struggle that lasted 17 minutes.
A home run by Rogers Hornsby with the bases full, duplicated by Jim Bottomley, brought the Cardinals to the lead.
The Cardinals' lead was 11-0 at the end of the eighth inning. The Phillies had 10 runs in the eighth inning, but the Cardinals scored 11 runs in the same inning.

FABLES ON HEALTH

FEED BODY PROPERLY

Had anyone asked Mr. Mann of Anytown what a cell was, he probably would have answered: "A place where they keep criminals."
Which would have been quite correct, but not complete.
A wiseacre friend reminded him one day that the body is built of many small parts. And cells are the infinitesimally small parts that form the house. All living things are made of cells.
Some 8,000,000 blood cells die every hour and have to be replaced. The growth of the human takes place only through the making over of food he eats. All living cells need food to maintain life and supply energy for work. Hunger is merely an appeal from cells for food.
To produce heat for the body something must be consumed. Work burn up fuel, like a locomotive. All work done in the body or by the body uses up materials that must be made up through food supply. Food is the body's one source of energy. Scientific estimates show that the body is capable of doing work equal to the lifting of 300 tons one foot from the ground.
"So be careful to feed the body properly."

MRS. BARTOW LOW MEDALIST
(By The Associated Press.)
PINEHURST, N. C., March 24.—Mrs. Ronald Bartow, of Philadelphia, was low medalist here today in the qualifying round of the twenty-second annual renewal of the United North and South Golf Tournament. Mrs. Bartow made the course in 41-44-85. Miss Dorothy Richards, Pinehurst, was second with 43-44-87, while Miss Glenna Collett, present holder of the title, tied for third place with 89 strokes with Miss Louise Fordyce, Youngstown, Ohio, and Mrs. Joseph Bydolek, Buffalo.
Match play in the tournament will begin tomorrow.

FOR ITCHING TORTURE

Use Antiseptic Liquid Zemo

There is one remedy that seldom fails to stop itching torture and relieve skin irritation, and that makes the skin soft, clear and healthy.
Any drugstore can supply you with Zemo, which generally overcomes skin diseases. Eczema, Itch, Pimples, Rashes, Blackheads, in most cases give way to Zemo. Frequently, minor blemishes disappear overnight. Itching usually stops instantly. Zemo is a safe, antiseptic liquid, clean, easy to use and dependable. It costs only 35c; an extra large bottle, $1.00. It is positively safe for tender, sensitive skins. Zemo Soap, 25c—Zemo Ointment, 50c.

The World's Record

THE Metropolitan is mutually owned by its 21,000,000 policyholders. Its assets belong to the policyholders. They are accumulated to meet policy obligations and for no other purpose. Every policyholder is a capitalist—an investor—and his interest should be recognized by legislators and commissioners. The policyholders own over $313,000,000 in railroad securities; $606,000,000 in real estate mortgages; $80,000,000 in public utility bonds; $200,000,000 in Government obligations.

One person in every six in the United States and Canada is a holder of a Metropolitan policy—one of the safest forms of investment.

In 1923 the Metropolitan grew faster than any other life insurance company in the world; grew in income—in assets—and in the effectiveness of its campaign for better health for the whole country.

The Metropolitan sends trained nurses to the homes of thousands of industrial (i. e. weekly premium) policyholders when they are sick. In 1923 these nurses made 2,482,919 visits.

While the average life span in the general population of the United States is 57½ years greater than it was 11 years ago, the life span of the industrial policyholders of the Metropolitan increased nearly 8½ years in the same interval. This greater gain has resulted in large part from the Metropolitan's Health Service.

During 1923 the Metropolitan distributed 33,790,840 booklets and pamphlets dealing with health, general welfare and longer life. The total number of pieces distributed to date amounts to 305,990,507.

The Metropolitan arranges for free periodic health examinations for holders of Ordinary policies. Among those who availed themselves of this privilege, the death rate was found to be 28% lower than was expected for the group.

The Metropolitan cooperates with the companies to which it has issued group insurance for their employees—cooperates not only in giving insurance protection but also to promote better health, better working conditions, better living conditions and happier social conditions.

Life insurance, which cares for the home and family, is born of a deep sense of responsibility. When millions of people join in a mutual sharing of this responsibility the result is the splendid picture shown in the 1923 report of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company. Never before has the world seen such a Business Statement nor had such an opportunity to look into the hearts of men and women, and to find there—Kindness.

WITH THE MAJORS IN THEIR TRAINING CAMPS

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, March 25.—Five exhibition games in as many days this week are booked by the Washington Americans, whose unbroken string of four inter-league victories has put them on edge for the strenuous program. The Griffiths meet Indianapolis of the American Association today.

METROPOLITAN TEAMS LOSE TO SMALLER TEAMS

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, March 25.—The Metropolitan major league teams lost to American Association clubs yesterday. Milwaukee beat Brooklyn, 17 to 0 at Palmetto, Fla., and Indianapolis, 7 to 3 at Plant City, Fla. Manager Huggins of the Yankees, spent the day working with his young pitchers, Gaston, Phipps, Rootger and Olson. Today the Giants meet Toledo at Gainesville, Fla., and the Robins face the Braves at Clearwater, Fla. The Yankees play by themselves at New Orleans.

CHANCE TO JOIN TEAM

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, March 25.—Tanned and healthy, with no trace of the recent ailments that caused him to proffer his resignation, Frank Chance, Chicago American, has returned from the mountains to his home in Los Angeles to prepare to join the White Sox at Chattanooga, April 5th. The White Sox beat the Boston Braves at Winter Haven, Fla., yesterday, 8 to 4. Rain broke the Chicago Nationals scheduled game at Stockton, Calif.

RECRUITS SHOW UP GOOD

(By The Associated Press.)
CLEVELAND, O., March 25.—Given their first opportunity, Drake and Edmondson, Cleveland Indians recruit pitchers, came through with honors yesterday in a seven inning game which the yanigans won, 4 to 2.

PLAY AT WINSTON TODAY

(By The Associated Press.)
DETROIT, March 25.—The Detroit Americans and the Toronto Internationals meet at Winston-Salem, N. C., in an exhibition game today. Detroit defeated Toronto yesterday, 14 to 4.

CHICAGO BEATS BRAVES

(By The Associated Press.)
BOSTON, March 25.—Chicago's American League team obtained revenge for a shutout last week at the hands of the Braves when they defeated the Boston Braves, 10 to 1, yesterday. Routine drill with a special session of fielding bunts for pitchers comprised the Boston Americans workout at San Antonio, Texas.

SAYS RED SOX WILL NOT FINISH LAST

By JOE WILLIAMS.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., March 25.—Manager Lee Fohl of the Boston Red Sox is not strong for winning conversational pennants, he much prefers delivering on the ball field. The only prediction that he will make on the 1924 American League race is this: "The Boston Red Sox will not finish in last place."

The Boston Red Sox is getting every thrill that goes with the job of a major league leader, also more than his share of disappointments. Fohl, after building the Cleveland club from an ordinary aggregation to a pennant contender, was deposed, only to have his club go out and win a pennant and a world series the following year under Tris Speaker.

Tough Break With Browns. Then came a chance with the St. Louis Browns. In a few years, under Fohl's direction, they came within a game of winning the American League pennant.

Picked to beat out the Yankees in 1923, Fohl's first bit of woe was Geo. Sisler's eye affliction, which deprived him of the services of the most valuable player in baseball.

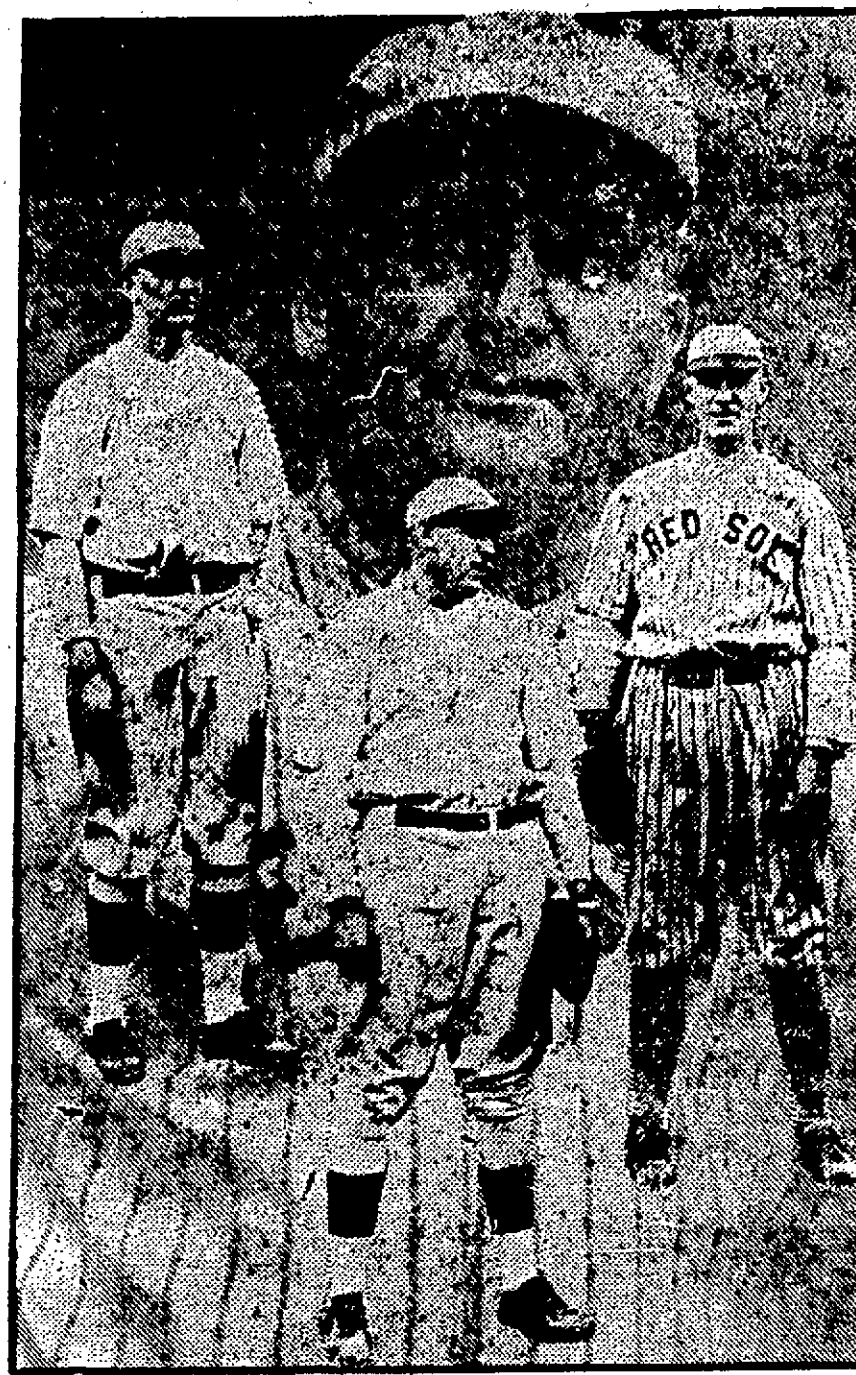

That bit of hard luck broke down the morale of the club and killed the team's chances for the start. Now Fohl, who for several years has been with pennant contenders, takes charge of a tail-end club. He is delighted with the opportunity, for he is working under his old boss, Bobby Quinn.

Likes Red Sox's Chances. "The Red Sox will not finish in last place," is about all an interview with Fohl discloses. He may feel that he has a chance to finish in the first division but doesn't say so.

Fohl's hopes for better days for the Boston Red Sox is based on the acquisition of Steve O'Neill and Bill Wambagans from Cleveland and Bobby Veach from Detroit.

For 10 days prior to the coming of the regulars Fohl has had his rookies working out. He wanted to see them in action before the arrival of the veterans, feeling they would work easier knowing none of the stars were giving them the once over.

Fohl is hopeful that he may grab off one worthwhile pitcher from the many recruits in the training camp.

in the states. He says, "I'm not yellow and I'm not kicking, but I've learned it's a good idea for American fighters to get their fighting in America." It also might be a good idea for farmers to stick to farming.

News item says Babe Ruth lost $1,000 bill at New Orleans the other day while on the way to the bank to send Mrs. Ruth four times that much. The same day Black Gold won the Louisiana Derby and Babe didn't pick him. Attention of Mrs. Ruth.

Pure "hokum," says Jack Dempsey with reference to Fohl's retirement. Being in the same business and having retired himself, Jack is certainly competent to pass an opinion.

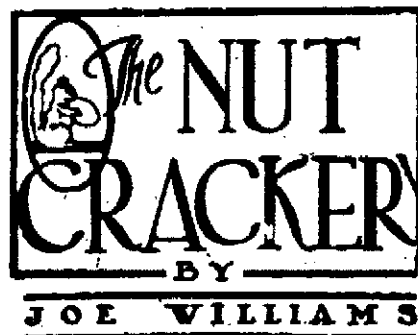

Since all our star athletes are also literary men it looks like our Olympic team would be largely made up of substitutes if the rule against water-athletes is enforced. Possibly several typewriter events can be scheduled for the stars.

Dempsey Offered Million Dollar Picture Contract

NEW YORK, March 24.—Jack Dempsey has a million-dollar motion picture and two championship fight bids from which to select in rapping out his 1924 program.

This was disclosed today by the heavyweight titleholder's manager, Jack Kearns, who said he would leave tomorrow for Los Angeles for a final conference with motion picture interests and also with James J. Corbett, California promoter who has renewed his bid to emcee for a title bout with Harry Wills at Tia Juana, Mexico, in September.

The other fight bid was made by Tex Rickard for a title match in or near New York in September with the "best available contender." Rickard indicated he preferred to stage a Babe Ruth announces that he intends to cut the scientific stuff in his batting. Interesting, since no one ever accused Babe of straining the gray matter.

Pitch him and inside to stop Ruth, says Speaker. Low and outside, says John McGraw. Intelligent pitching will stop him, opines George Sisler. Just pitch, but be sure to duck, says One Punch O'Goofy, the traveling expert.

Base running due for a revival, is the word from all Southern training camps. Base running is to be the deciding factor, say the managers. Which brings us back to the old baseball truth, you can't steal first base.

The Irish who celebrated on St. Patrick's Day because of Jack Delaney's victory over Paul Berlinbach are due for a rude awakening. Delaney's real name is Chappelaine.

Firpo says he intends to retire from the ring. It might be added, not until the U. S. mint quits turning out real dollars. Firpo has a tighter grip than Harry Lauder.

Pitcher Luque has finally reported to the Cincinnati team at Orlando, Fla. Cincinnati headline says team is now ready to start the season. That may cause Eddie Roush to ask for more salary.

Farmer Lodge, who went to South America to assume a horizontal position in his bout with Firpo, is back

HITS DIRT IN COBB STYLE

DICK LOFTUS HITTING THE DIRT

The Brooklyn Dodgers are again using the sand sliding pits to perfect play in the base running end of the game. For several years little attention has been paid to base running, because of the lively ball. In the picture, Dick Loftus is shown hitting the dirt in typical Ty Cobb fashion.

For the Game's Sake

By LAWRENCE PERRY

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee)

NEW YORK, Mar. 25. Chancellor Charles W. Flint, of Syracuse University, who has been in New York the past few days, is not greatly worried by the present athletic trend in our universities. Adequate control, he believes is all that is necessary to keep varsity sports in their proper place with respect to the essential work of an educational institution. The chancellor spoke with special reference to the recent out-riding of the Carnegie foundation on the subject of intercollegiate athletics. He will make some more extended reference to this in his annual report but in the meantime, a few of his reactions are as interesting as they are timely.

"The paid coach," said the chancellor, "has no credit with me. He must, of course, be the right sort of coach, a qualified instructor and a wholesome influence. Being such I prefer him to the amateur coach who serves without pay if only because the paid coach can be controlled and the amateur coach cannot."

"Big stadiums when built to meet and thus financially feasible, are not objectionable. Rather the contrary I believe. Alumni bodies increase year by year and hence the necessity for greater seating grows normally."

"A graduate or a student can do a lot of worse things than spend an afternoon in a football or baseball stand, excepting his lungs. In fact, I approve of this. It makes for cellist solidarity and spreads the wind and sunlight of outdoors throughout an institution."

The ideal varsity athlete, that is to say, the athlete of whom I most heartily approve, is the man who can transfer his enthusiasm, his powers of concentration and his tenacity of purpose from the athletic field to the class room. Athletes can do that; they are doing it right now in Syracuse. Publicity of athletes? This does not harm to the right sort of boy and the wrong sort is hurt by almost anything."

GREB SCORES TECHNICAL KNOCKOUT OVER KEIZER

(By The Associated Press.)
BALTIMORE, March 24.—Harry Greb, of Pittsburgh, middleweight titleholder, scored a technical knockout over Ray Keizer of Cumberland, Md., in the twelfth round of their scheduled 15 round bout here tonight. Keizer was outclassed and took a bad beating in every round. The bout was stopped by the referee after Keizer had been floored heavily with a left hook to the jaw for a count of two and was helpless with Greb punning him unmercifully in a neutral corner.

SPRING DOESN'T MEAN ANYTHING TO HIM

By STEVE HANNAGAN

NEW YORK, Mar. 25.—The coming of spring never meant less to Billy Showles, world's champion bareback rider of the circus.

This year at 65 years of age he sees it come through windows of a hospital, where he suffers from an incurable disease.

In other days he awaited its coming in brand new tight spick and span, ready with new tricks, prepared to thrill the grown-ups and make hearts of children beat faster in awe and excitement at his marvelous feats—waited for the ringmaster in his cutaway coat, high hat, drooping black mustache, long, crackling whip and husky voice to bawl out:

"Ladies and Gentlemen! The next number is the greatest feat performed under any tent in any corner of the world. It is the double forward somersault from the back of a horse, originated and stazed only by Billy Showles, the crack bareback rider of the universe."

From horses to elevators. Then the brass band would sound its familiar "ta-ta-ta-ta" and the famous little horseman would make his entrance to the center ring, in a din of applause.

One day Billy fell from the back of a horse he was training in England, broke a leg—and never performed again.

His occupation for years has been an elevator man in an apartment building—wearing a dark green, brass-buttoned uniform instead of the white, silk tights of better days; listening for the indicator bell of his elevator instead of the plaudits of admiring thousands.

Nobody knew his whereabouts

South River, N. J., and his real name was William Christian.

"When he was 19 years old, Jake Showles, a famous circus clown and performer, legally adopted him and started training him with many old-timers of the days of Dan Rice, international clown, in a ring barn at South River. Billy grew up in the circus."

Twang of Tanbark Gone. Dickson was an artistic and whirlwind roller skater.

"Showles could turn three somersaults leaping over four elephants," added John Huntington, now grayed with years, who used to tickle the tops of the biggest tents with his ballet slippers as he swung from the topmost trapeze of the circus tents.

Other performers of Showles' days add their appreciation of his prowess as a circus athlete.

Showles was married three times. First was Sally Barker, a "pad" rider, a star before the bareback days; second came Daisy Belmont, a bareback rider; third, Kitty Clark, a girl from his home town, many years his junior, who visits him at the hospital every day now. They have a 10-year-old son.

Over Three Elephants. With the spring air wafting thru the hospital windows, Showles' friends who brought the smell of sawdust to offset the drug-store aroma of the ward, held a consultation.

Within a short time, Billy Showles, star rider who was paid the top salary of $400 a week in the circus, will undoubtedly be sent to a sanitarium in the country to spend his remaining days.

It's that way with circus men. They do good deeds—but they never tell.

King of Riders. The other day he was taken to a hospital. His identity became known. With the fleetness of radio, the word passed to his old cronies. They stamped his ward in the hospital in droves.

"Yes, Billy was the king of the bareback performers," recounted Johnny Dickson, his former bunk mate in circus camp, who now sells spare parts of New York's latest department stores. "He was born in

The Sportsman

By WALTER CAMP

(Copyright, 1924, by The Bee.)
NEW YORK, March 25.—The drastic change in the football rules which sweeps away altogether the "free" from which the football rules committee at its meeting here Saturday, will find little favor among coaches or players, in the writer's opinion.

Doubtless they would have been better satisfied if the building up of an arthen tee for the kickoff, at least, had been permitted to continue.

The officials, however, will be glad to see this change, for all sorts of puzzling questions have been put up to them as to whether an "arthen" tee, heretofore prohibited, really was. The captain contended that a molded, manufactured and hardened tee was not artificial so long as it was made of play taken from the field of play.

The new rule, eliminating all tees will be very much in the minds of the spectators as the next session starts and the kickers will feel very much like the golfer who has been playing winter rules and is suddenly called upon to play the ball where it lies. They will find some difficulty at first, especially when they wish to get the ball well up in the air to give time to get down the field under the kick. Placement kicks will be rather more difficult to make, but otherwise, the effects will not be great and the kickers will probably soon adjust themselves to the change.

As had been predicted, the committee made no radical changes in the balance of attack or defense or in the general method of play.

The change in the point of playing the ball on the three-yard line may tend to tempt teams to essay a running game but the writer rather doubts it. It will slightly favor the kick.

The permission given the defense to intercept a forward pass after it has hit an ineligible player, will not prove a very vital change, although some think it will. But the endowing of the referee with power to prevent passive interference will help the defense.

The key move of the meeting, was to speed up the game, prevent stalling and unreasonable delay and sufficient power is placed in the hands of the referee to do this. Moreover, the penalty of five yards instead of two for time out after a captain has used up all his allotment will be quite effective, even though partially balanced by increasing the allotment.

Rickey Banks On Sothoron to Make Good

BRADENTOWN, Fla., March 25.—Mr. Branch Rickey of the Cardinals has found out what ails Al Sothoron, the veteran snailball pitcher who was driven out of the majors because he couldn't field a ball.

It has always been presumed that a sort of mental hazard seized Sothoron in such circumstances. Early in his career he had made a botch of fielding punts and the fear had grown on him that the task was beyond him.

That's how Lee Fohl, who managed the Browns, sized up Sothoron's case. This Speaker of the Indians made the same estimate.

Mr. Rickey, however, insists they are wrong. "I don't think psychology enters into the case at all," says Mr. Rickey. "Sothoron simply tries to throw the ball before he gets it. We are trying to correct this fault. I think he will be a greatly improved pitcher this season."

Telegram Saved J. E. Cuthrell From Death at Crossing

How J. E. Cuthrell, auctioneer for a warehouse, narrowly escaped accompanying C. B. Tarr and J. P. Creekmore on their fatal journey last Sunday, was related by him this morning when he was asked concerning a report current Sunday night that he had also been claimed in the tragedy. Mr. Cuthrell stated that he owed his life to the receipt of a telegram late on Saturday night after having made all arrangements to accompany Tarr and Creekmore on their trip to Norfolk.

Mr. Cuthrell, now, that the tobacco season is over, is selling stock and has become a member of the organization with which Messrs. Tarr and Creekmore were members. On Saturday evening it had been agreed that Cuthrell should accompany the two men to Norfolk and his wife was made to start unusually early in order to get well on the road before rain, which appeared likely, softened the roads. It was agreed to start at 6:30 and Mr. Cuthrell went to his hotel in order to get a good night's rest. He was about to retire when he received a telephone call informing him that a telegram was at one of the local offices awaiting delivery.

It asked him for a business engagement on Monday morning. Realizing that it would be impossible for him to make the return trip in time, Mr. Cuthrell wrote a note to Mr. Tarr and left it with the hotel clerk, informing him that it would be impossible for him to go.

The hour of Mr. Tarr's funeral in Easton, Pa., today was not known today. The first plans were for Mr. Tarr's body to be brought here but these were changed but it was too late to inform Mrs. Agnes Cornwell, daughter of Mr. Tarr, who had already started south from New York. She arrived here yesterday evening and hearing that her father's body had been taken north, Horace Tarr, son of the deceased, also passed through here early this morning on the way from Pensacola, Fla. It was considered doubtful if they would reach Easton in time for the funeral today.

G. M. Flinn arrived home yesterday afternoon from the scene of the tragedy. Some five hundred people visited the scene of the disaster Sunday and viewed the scattered remnants of the car over a distance of nearly a mile. He said that the circumstances of the fatality almost paralleled those under which Miss Nancy Keen and Mrs. Lickleiter were killed here last August, the relative course of the road and the railway track being the same.

Funeral services for Mr. Creekmore will be held at Norfolk today. He was the son of the late J. W. Creekmore, of St. Bride's, Va., and was 50 years old. He formerly was a Norfolk county farmer and at one time was in the real estate business in Norfolk. Mr. Creekmore is survived by his wife, and a brother, F. L. Creekmore, of St. Bride's.

Shoe Machinery Case Is Settled By Appeal Court

LYNCHBURG, Va., March 25.—The action of the State Supreme Court of Appeals at Richmond in denying a writ of error and supersedeas in the petition of the United Shoe Machinery Company, a Maine corporation, in which relief was sought from $3,770 assessed against the corporation here by D. L. Taylor, commissioner of the revenue, assessed on the 1921 income of the company here, settles as far as the Virginia courts are concerned the right of the State to levy an income tax on the earnings of a foreign corporation which leases machinery in Virginia for manufacturing purposes while retaining title to the machinery which is to be used by lessees tax free to the owner.

The United Shoe Machinery Company owned much of the machinery used in five or six shoe factories here, the leases requiring users to pay all taxes. The raising of this question and its settlement in the courts raises a new question for the company to deal with.

Commissioner Taylor has announced that the 1922 assessment will be made at once, this having been held up last year when the petition to have the assessment declared erroneous was pending in the Corporation court. The assessments for 1922 and 1923 possibly will be larger than 1921, because local shoe concerns have increased the output of factories since 1921 considerably.

PREPARE FOR ENCAMPMENT

(By The Associated Press.)

RICHMOND, March 25.—Major General Anton, Washington, commanding the 29th division, today notified Adjutant General Sale that he will attend the four-day preliminary Virginia National Guard encampment at the state rifle range near Virginia Beach, June 9-12.

This encampment will include all infantry officers, selected enlisted men, state staff corps and department and officers of the 29th division staff.

STEPS ARE TAKEN TO HAVE CHASE IMPEACHED

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 25.—A resolution looking to impeachment in the House of C. C. Chase, customs collector at El Paso, Texas, and son-in-law of Albert B. Fall, was adopted by the Senate today.

Offered by Senator Walsh, of Montana, prosecutor in the oil committee the resolution grew out of the refusal of Chase to answer any questions before the committee and from the testimony of Price McKinney, of Cleveland, that Chase had sought to have him say he loaned Albert B. Fall, $100,000.

A resolution providing for the impeachment of C. C. Chase, collector of customs at El Paso on charges of conspiracy was introduced today by Senator Walsh, Democrat, Montana.

MELLON RATES ARE AGAIN IN REVENUE BILL*Committee Launches Into Income Section Original Rates for Compromise

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 25.—The income tax rates proposed by Secretary Mellon are again in the revenue bill. Proceeding with unexpected speed in its consideration of the bill last night, the Senate finance committee launched into the income section and, by a vote of 8 to 7, substituted the Mellon rates for the Longworth compromise adopted by the House.

Democrats of the committee, who have been working on a substitute for the Longworth compromise adopted by the House.

Chairman Snoot said a motion to re-open the income schedule for committee action would be decided by the committee.

With a decision reached on this section, the main controversial schedule of the bill, the Longworth was given an opportunity to center its work now on the miscellaneous tax schedules with prospects of making a report to the Senate within two weeks.

The Mellon rates provide for a maximum surtax of 25 per cent. on incomes below $4,000 and 62 per cent. above that amount. The Longworth rates called for a maximum surtax of 37-1-2 per cent. against 50 per cent. in the present law and normal rates of two per cent. on incomes between $4,000, 5 per cent. on incomes between $4,000 and $8,000 and 6 per cent. above that.

The treasury rate schedule, advanced last fall before the opening of Congress, was adopted by the House Ways and Means committee on a strict party vote but was not supported by a large number of Republicans. The Democrats were able to substitute a plan proposed by Representative Garner, Democrat, Texas, providing for a maximum surtax of 44 per cent. and lower normal tax rates than proposed by the Mellon plan. The Republicans in the House voted for the Longworth compromise.

Probe of State Game Dept. Set For Next Thurs.

(By The Associated Press.)

ROANOKE, Va., March 25.—The committee appointed by the legislature to investigate certain charges in connection with Macdonald Lee's conduct of the department of game and inland fisheries and the department of fisheries will meet in Richmond at noon Thursday to begin its work, according to Senator Holman Willis, chairman, who will leave here tonight for Richmond.

Sensor Willis said the committee probably would take up charges of extravagance at its first session, inasmuch as there are records available for immediate scrutiny and the committee can therefore proceed without the presence of witnesses. He said witnesses would be summoned to appear at a later date to be determined by the committee. It is probable, he said, that the committee may continue in session for a few days and adjourn for several weeks before proceeding further with the inquiry, as some of the committee members have urgent business at home as spring comes in.

Anderson Begins Serving Term In Sing Sing

(By The Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, March 25.—William H. Anderson, former state superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York, convicted of third degree forgery, today surrendered to Sheriff Doelling and will start for Sing Sing prison at two o'clock this afternoon to begin serving his term of from one to two years.

William H. Anderson, former superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League of New York today begins serving his term of from one to two years in Sing Sing prison. Anderson was convicted last January of third degree forgery. He probably will be put to work immediately with a pick and shovel, Warden Lawes said yesterday. After a short period of hard manual labor, which is the lot of all newcomers at the prison, the ex-prohibition chief will be assigned to clerical work.

OAK GROVE LOCAL CALLED.

C. B. Lewis, secretary of the Oak Grove Local Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Marketing Association, has issued a call for a meeting to be held next Saturday night, March 23th, at 7:30 p. m., when business of prime importance will be presented.

The attention of the House "for appropriate action."

"That intends impeachment," asked Senator Borah, Republican, Idaho, when the proposal was presented.

"Yes," said Senator Walsh.

Senator Walsh asked immediate consideration, but Senator Snoot, Republican, Missouri, objected, saying that though he is a member of the oil committee, the introduction "is the first I've heard of this resolution."

Chase is Albert B. Fall's son-in-law. McKinney recently testified that Chase had been sent to him to ask that he "say" Fall had borrowed from him the mysterious $100,000 whose source the oil committee was seeking to ascertain.

Sensor Bursum, Republican, New Mexico, also protested saying Chase intends to resign. Senator Robinson, Arkansas, the Democratic leader, replied that no resignation "will be permitted to protect an offending officer."

Probe of Revenue Bureau Continues

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Abatement and similar allowances in favor of taxes and insurances that "Mellon" has been given preferential consideration continued today to engage the attention of the special Senate committee investigating the internal revenue bureau.

Bureau officials informed the committee yesterday they would present the tax records of companies in which Secretary Mellon is interested in an answer to the inference that these concerns have been favored. At the same time they were requested by Senator Couzens, Republican, Michigan, committee prosecutor, to present the record of an abatement made in his favor which he desired as evidence that an opportunity for graft at least exists in the bureau.

Documents purporting to be copies of instructions from bureau officials indicating an effort to "expedite" the work of field agents employed on tax cases involving the Standard Steel Co. and its subsidiaries, the "Mellon companies" were read by Senator Couzens, who said they were furnished by a witness who would testify later.

LOCAL WILL MEET AT RINGGOLD TOMORROW NIGHT

W. H. Wilson, secretary of the Ringgold Local Tobacco Growers' Cooperative Marketing Association, announced this morning that an important meeting of that group would be held at Ringgold, Va., at 7:30 o'clock at the Ringgold schoolhouse. At this meeting will be elected a delegate to the county meeting to be held in the near future when a director from the county will be named. There will be a number of speakers at this meeting including W. E. Gardner, of Danville.

WASHINGTON, March 25.—Farm wages averaged higher in the United States last year than in 1922. The Department of Agriculture announced today that last year's average was $33.18 a month with board compared with $29.17 in 1922.

Industrial competition for labor was the principal cause of the increase which was shown in all geographic groups of states.

"SURE AM GLAD I TRIED CARDUI"

Louisiana Lady Says That She Was in a Condition of Serious Debility, But Now Feels Good as Ever.

Shreveport, La.—Mrs. William C. Cardui of 2424 St. Charles St., this city, has never known what ill health was until last year. Then she began having smothering spells.

"I would awake in the mornings," relates Mrs. Cardui, "feeling weak and just no account. I couldn't get up and stir about like I had always done. I was nervous, too, for I didn't understand the shortness of breath. I would try to do my work but would have to stop."

Mr. Cardui then took matters into his own hands, and, on the suggestion of his druggist, brought home some Cardui for his wife.

"After taking one bottle," continues Mrs. Cardui, "I felt stronger. Each morning my husband would say, 'Take your medicine.' I did and after my second bottle I felt good as ever. I know Cardui did me worlds of good and I sure am glad I tried it."

Mrs. Cardui found, as have many other women, that Cardui, with its gentle, building up-tonic, qualities, was just what she needed to put her on her feet again. Cardui is purely vegetable, mild and harmless.

REBEL LEADER IS ARRESTED*Taken in Custody With Brothers After Arrival to Negotiate Surrender

(By The Associated Press.)

MEXICO CITY, March 25.—General Romulo Figueroa, Guerrero rebel chieftain who came to the capital to negotiate the surrender, was arrested yesterday following an interview with Under-Secretary of War Manzo. With him were taken his brothers, Ambrosio and Francisco, and also Crispin Samano and Former Deputy Urbano Lavín.

Ambrosio and Francisco Figueroa and Samano were generals in the rebel forces while Lavín acted as rebel governor of Guerrero, being charged with responsibility for the local uprising ante-dating the Vera Cruz revolt.

It is reported their arrest was ordered for non-political reasons based on allegations of executions and property destruction during their insurrectionary operations.

General Gustavo Salas, prominent in Enriquez Estrada's uprising in Jalisco, was arrested while hiding on a Michoacan ranch and will be court-martialed.

The federal advance against Oaxaca City is progressing as repairs to the railway are made. It is believed the city will be taken within a few days.

Unconfirmed reports say that Adolfo de la Huerta, the supreme rebel leader, is bound for Havana, Cuba, and other advices say he is still in Mexico. Both are understood to be based on intercepted rebel wireless messages.

Enrique Estrada, rebel chief in the west, was last reported to attempting to escape by sea from Acapulco.

Experts Resume Their Meeting

(By The Associated Press.)

PARIS, March 25.—The Dawes committee of reparations experts returned to work today with great energy after the first week-end recess since the meetings began more than two months ago.

The banking sub-committee sat throughout the morning while the railway and budget sub-committees met in the afternoon to iron out the details upon which divergencies of opinion have arisen over the manner in which some of the decisions of the experts should be presented to the drafting committee.

In an effort to have the general report ready at the beginning of next week, the plenary session of the committee set for three o'clock this afternoon was cancelled.

SALE TO ATTEND MEET

(By The Associated Press.)

RICHMOND, March 25.—Adjutant General Sale and several members of his staff probably will attend the annual reunion of the Sons of Confederate Veterans in Memphis, Tenn., June 3-6, it was announced today following the receipt of an invitation from Colonel W. McDonald Lee, commander-in-chief.

MURPHY'S MEN WORK OUT FOR FIRST TIME, MORE PLAYERS HERE

The first workout of Murphy's hopulists was begun at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon, at Stonewall Jackson park. It was practice in a light form as Manager Murphy does not want his men to develop sore arms and muscles. A number of other candidates for positions on the local team arrived overnight and these too were among those working out early this afternoon. Up to noon none of the old players had arrived—their being referred to as George Resco, first baseman; Eddie Regan, outfielder, and Leo Harris, pitcher, the only members of last year's team which will be seen here. However, they are expected at any hour as they have affixed their signatures to contracts for the coming season.

SALESMAN WANTS ALL TO KNOW THE FACTS

Felt So Rundown Couldn't Sell Gold Dollars For Fifty Cents—Tanlac Put Him on Road to "Wellville."

Claude E. White, widely known specialty salesman, residing at 2811 First St., Lafayette Annex, Norfolk, Va., says: "Tanlac is the shortest and cheapest route to 'Wellville.' I have even traveled."

Not only is Mr. White a "big" man physically, but he is also one of those big-hearted, congenial "Knights of the Grip," who add a new friend with every new acquaintance. "Mr. White further says:

"Stomach and liver disorders had worried me so long that I had about reconciled myself to a continuation of the trouble. My rest was all broken up at night and I got up mornings feeling like I couldn't sell a gold dollar for fifty cents."

"Last summer someone put me onto Tanlac and the medicine just seemed to smooth out every difficulty. I still take a bottle or two of Tanlac now and then and it makes me eat and sleep fine and boosts my energy amazingly."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 40 million bottles sold.

Take Tanlac Vegetable Pills.—adv.

BRITISH LABOR DISPUTES COST HUGE TOTAL IN LAST DAYS

LONDON, March 24.—The number of working days lost by trade disputes as reported to the Ministry of Labor, in Great Britain and northern Ireland in 1920, 1921 and 1922 and 1923 were approximately 26,000,000, 28,000,000, 20,000,000 and 10,500,000 respectively. These figures, given in a parliamentary reply by the minister of labor, relate only to days lost at the establishments where the disputes occurred. No figures are available as to days lost at establishments other than those directly affected.

PARIS TO HONOR FIRST MOVIE

PARIS, March 24.—On the building that is replacing one of the famous cafes of the Boulevard des Capucines the Paris City Council is to erect a bronze plaque to commemorate the first public "movie" shown. It was on December 28, 1895, that the Lumiere brothers projected their first film before an audience. The screen was stretched in the basement of the Grand Cafe, for generations a favorite haunt of Boulevard-ites to make room for a bank.

GOTHENBURG PAIR LOST MONEY

GOTHENBURG, Sweden, March 24.—The Jubilee Exposition, held here last summer to commemorate the three hundredth anniversary of the founding of the city of Gothenburg, which was visited by nearly 4,000,000 persons from all parts of the world, has incurred a deficit of $670,000. The officials of the exposition have petitioned the government for permission to hold a lottery for the purpose of recovering this loss.

BROOKLYN INFIELD IS WEAK SPOT OF TEAM

CLEARWATER, Fla., March 24.—The Brooklyn infield has the source of considerable trouble for Manager Robinson last year. It threatens to give him considerable again this year. The ancient Fournier will be back at first base. Gonzales, the catcher from St. Paul, can also play the bag. So can Loftus, the Bridgeport outfielder. They are to serve as reserves. Klugman will go to second base. He is a newcomer. Last year he starred with Des Moines in the Western League, batting .346 and fielding acceptably. This is Klugman's second time up. The Cubs had him several years back, but turned him adrift for lack of experience. Robinson thinks he will make the grade this time.

Jones was to play short. He's the baby the legal Mr. Ebbetts paid $25,000 to Portland for. Jones has signed his Brooklyn contract all right, but demands a part of the purchase price from the Portland owners, who in turn ask the player if he knows any more jokes. Eventually Jones will report of course. They always do. But Robinson wanted him on the ground early.

JAPAN INCREASES SHIP SUBSIDY

TOKYO, March 24.—To encourage trade with South America the government has decided to increase the subsidies granted steamship companies maintaining South American services from 500,000 yen annually, the present figure, to 800,000 yen. Otsuka Shosen Kaisha and the Toei Kisen Kaisha are the principal lines affected.

TO CLOSE CARPENTERS' GIBBONS BOUT TODAY

CHICAGO, March 24.—The proposed ten round contest between Tom Gibbons and Georges Carpentier is scheduled to be closed here tomorrow when Floyd FitzSimmons, the promoter, will meet with Jack Curley, representing the French light heavyweight, and Eddie Kane, manager of Otsuka Shosen Kaisha, to stage the contest in his arena at Michigan City, July 1.

and lament the valuable training time that has been lost. You can't rebuild an infield in a week. Jimmy Johnson, the veteran Jack of all Enterprises, has been playing the position in the spring games, and will continue to do so until Jones arrives. Robinson has Morris Berg at short to start with but he fell down and bumped his rubber nose. Andy High has been playing third base and will probably be stationed regularly there this season. High has been hitting the ball hard this spring and seems to be holding better.

"As matters stand now," Robinson tells you, "we have an infield that is uncertain at best. I had counted on Jones being here from the start and his failure to report has upset all my experimental plans."

Robinson intends to stand pat on his veteran outfield, consisting of Wheat in left, Griffith in right and Neis in center.

Governor Signs Several Measures

(By the Associated Press)
RICHMOND, March 25.—Assembly measures providing for the establishment of a State school for the blind at Charlottesville and the inauguration of a free employment service under the direction of the Department of Labor and Industry, were signed today by Governor Trimble. The school for the blind now is a part of the school for the blind and deaf at Staunton. A special legislative committee, however, recommended that the institution be divided. The school for the deaf will remain in Staunton.

Among the other bills approved by the governor were the following: For the inspection of motor fuels, under the direction of the Department of Agriculture.

To provide for annual registration of pharmacists and to regulate the practice. To prohibit the display of false or misleading advertising. To make it a larceny to receive money or anything else of value with intent to defraud from a person engaged in the cultivation of the soil. To punish fraud in the procurement of State licenses or certificates.

Criqui to Return For Another Bout With Dundee Soon

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 25.—Eugene Criqui, French soldier-boxer who won the featherweight championship of the world from Johnny Kilbane last June, only to lose it to Johnny Dundee six weeks later, will return to America in June prepared to accept a return match against Dundee during July. He informs his American representative.

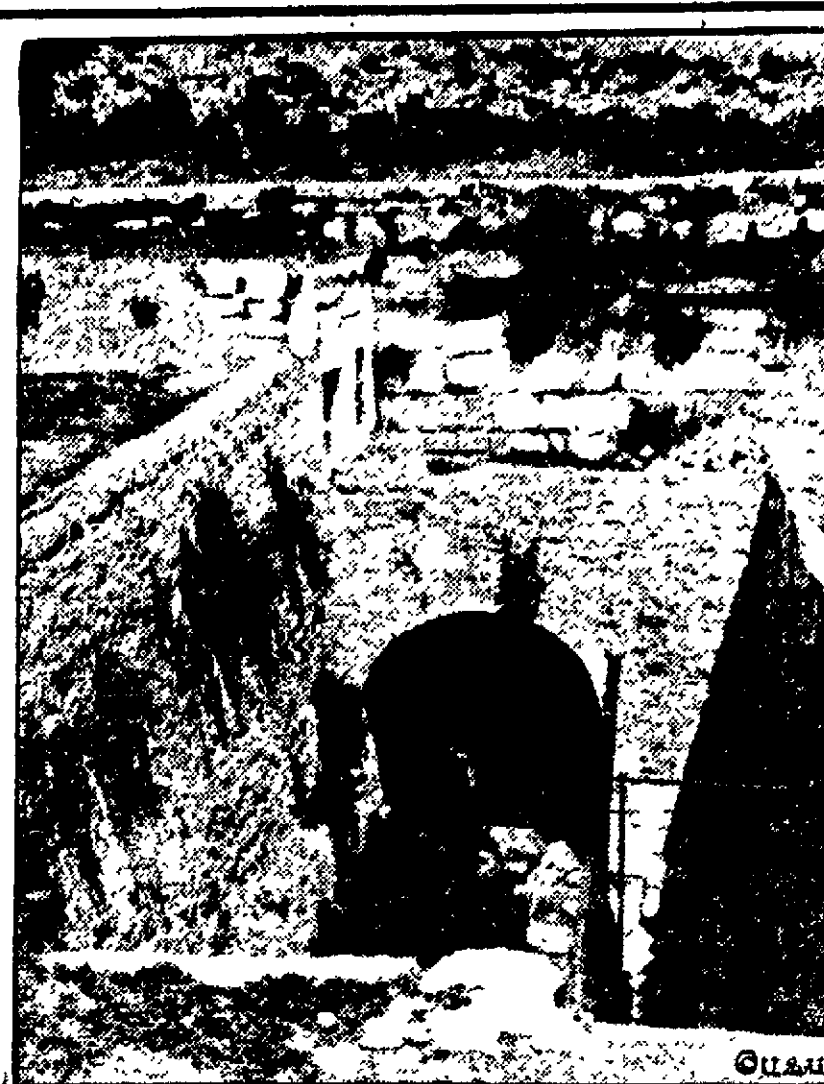

Criqui has been training in North Africa. He will engage in a Paris battle with his French rival, Charles Ledoux, before coming here. Dundee is said to have promised the French champion a return match whenever Criqui was ready to fight.

When folks tell what isn't true about you, don't get angry. Just suppose they knew the truth about you and told that.

MORNING STOCK LETTER Thomson & McKinnon

NEW YORK, Mar. 25.—Is there a chance for the market to straighten itself and resume the advance which apparently culminated early last month? Where is a chance—a fairly good chance?

The Senate Committee revive the Mellon tax plan substituting the Mellon schedule for the House compromise. If they are sustained in this it will make a lot of difference.

A most interesting interview with Henry Ford, published in the last issue of Colliers, should make a lot of friends for the Mellon plan. The interview is as full of good sense and economy, as anything I have seen in print in a long time.

The market is in fine shape now to reverse itself. There are plenty of shorts and plenty of people with capital waiting for some assurance. It wouldn't take much buying of the right sort to put a lot of life in the market.

BRAZILIAN CONSUL PROMOTED (By the Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, March 24.—Victor F. Da Cunha, consul-general of Brazil in New Orleans for four years, has been promoted to the consul generalship in Switzerland and leaves next week for Zurich. He will be succeeded here by Carlos Ferreira Deaquina, who has been stationed at Asuncion, Paraguay.

NEW YORK STOCKS.

(By the Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 25.—Considerable irregularity developed in stock prices at the opening of today's market, with losses predominating in a list of small fractional changes. Motor shares generally continued under selling pressure, although Studebaker advanced fractionally. A number of the oils also lost ground.

Heavy buying of American Can which weakened at yesterday's close on speculative uneasiness over today's dividend action, brought about sharp demand and imparted a somewhat sharper tone to the market in the earlier dealings. Its advance of more than a point was accompanied by similar gains in other special issues including Central Leather, Davison Chemical and United States Rubber first, pfd. Studebaker extended its gain to a point and General Electric and Norfolk and Western also resumed their upward movements. Selling of Austin and Nichols brought that stock down almost a point to a new low level at 21-1/8. Foreign exchanges opened steady.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON.

(By the Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, March 25.—The cotton market opened weak and decidedly irregular. First trades on March showing a decline of 50 points from the previous close, while May traded 19 down. By the time July was reached on the call the decline had shrunk to 12 points and October showed only six points less. The weakness was attributed to poor cables and a generally dry weather map. An official forecast for cloudy and showers in Texas and Louisiana caused a wave of covering forcing a rally that carried March back to the previous close and later months 1 to 2 points net higher. By the end of the first half hour of trading a fresh wave of selling forced May down to 27.00 and July to 26.20 or 47 to 51 points down from the previous close. Market feverish. A few March notices circulated.

NEW YORK, March 25.—There was a continuation of yesterday's selling movement in the cotton market and a further sharp decline in prices during today's early trading. Liverpool fully met the local decline of the previous day while weather advices were again favorable to the south and the circulation of March notices estimated at about 3,000 bales caused some near month liquidation. May broke to 26.65 and October to 24.28 with the general list showing net declines of about 35 to 65 points within the first half hour of trading.

GIRL BANDIT HYSTERIA

By HORTENSE SAUNDERS
NEW YORK, March 25.—All of Gotham is suffering with a bobbed-hair bandit hysteria. Just let a young woman with short locks and her husband, brother or sweetheart stop to look in a store window and the merchant within prepares to greet the Bobbed-Haired Bandit.

New Mrs. Albert E. Guimares, wife of the young fellow who was brought to public attention through the Dor King murder case is in the shadow of the law because of this hysteria.

She went into an uptown tailor shop to ask the cost of having her costly fur coat re-lined. A dapper young fellow came out of a big car and entered the shop.

Victims of the Bobbed-Haired Bandit immediately came to Charles Bernstein, the tailor. He telephoned for the police. The young man, hearing of the trouble, fled from the store. Mrs. Guimares remained.

The patrol came and took her to the station house and thousands of women gathered to look at her.

She complacently puffed at a cigarette and told the police she didn't know the young fellow who escaped and that she had not been with him. And the police called in the score of victims of the Bobbed-Haired Bandit to look at their catch.

Most of them said she wasn't the girl and some of them said maybe she was and maybe she wasn't, that they had been so excited when they were held up that they couldn't tell.

And in the meantime the police are proceeding on the theory that it takes a woman to catch a woman at crooked work. Hundreds of patrolmen and detectives have tried for weeks to catch the young lady who robbed a dozen of more storekeepers in Brooklyn and then jumped to Manhattan to spread the girl bandit hysteria in that borough.

Policewomen have been recruited to catch her.

JOBS

New wonders of science, latest movie sensations, the most interesting. But, after all, to the average man the most important matter is jobs—plenty of work.

The news along this line is good. Uncle Sam's Department of Labor checks up and finds that the number on the pay roll of manufacturing concerns increased better than 1 per cent in February. That's not a lot, but it's the first general gain since last June. Times are looking better.

INCURABLE

In 1872, London lung specialists advised Rebecca Winter to make her will. They broke the news gently: she had incurable tuberculosis. Yet she did not die until the other day. For 52 years she had lived suffering from an "incurable disease." She confided in Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes' observation that the way to live to a ripe old age is to contract an incurable malady and nurse it.

RUSS

Two important developments in Russia indicate the Bolsheviks expect to remain on the job indefinitely. They issue orders to remove the word "Russia" from all maps and such country as Russia. Instead, it's the Federation of Soviet Republics. Financiers say the Reds have abandoned hope of ever reviving the value of the ruble. The ruble printing presses have been stored in the national museum. A lot put into circulation is being put into circulation. Rulers have confidence in their ability to hold their jobs when they, in effect, repudiate their own money.

YOU

Half a ton of blood flows through your heart every hour, says Dr. Henry Holmes, lecturing at Harvard Medical School. This is a terrific amount of work for a delicate pump. It is obvious that life can be prolonged and health improved by getting plenty of sleep and lying down for 30 minutes or so in mid-day and early evening. When standing, our hearts pump blood the full height of the body. When reclining, strain is taken off the pump, blood flows like water through horizontal pipes.

CAPITAL

Washington, D. C., is three times as drunken as Paris and 20 times as murderous as London, claims Representative Tinkham. He gets this information by comparing police statistics. A questionable environment for government.

It would be a good idea to move our national capital out into the middle west, and locate it in a village located in the heart of the country, closer to the people, Uncle Sam might watch his step more carefully.

SUICIDE

Germany announces that 5106 of her soldiers committed suicide during the world war.

That is a very low rate—much fewer than the number that would have taken their lives if the war years had been peaceful.

At least 10,000 Americans a year commit suicide. What irony, that people are more hopeful in war than peace!

On the other hand, there must have been thousands of Germans who killed themselves but were recorded as victims of enemy bullets.
